We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Moffat Water Supply Corporation (a non-profit organization), which comprise the balance sheets as of September 30, 2020, and the related statements of income, membership investments, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements. The financial statements of Moffat Water Supply Corporation as of September 30, 2019, were audited by other auditors whose report dated January 17, 2020, expressed an unqualified opinion on those statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Moffat Water Supply Corporation as of September 30, 2020 and 2019, and the results of its operation and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Emphasis of Matter

As discussed in Note 1 to the financial statements, during the year ended September 30, 2020, the Organization adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

Notes to Financial Statements For the Years Ended September 30, 2020 and 2019

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Operations

Moffat Water Supply Corporation is a member-owned tax exempt organization, which incorporated pursuant to Chapter 67 of the Texas Water Code for the purpose of providing potable water to its' members in Bell county in Texas. Operating policies, rates, tariffs and regulations are formulated by a Board of Directors, duly elected by the members of Moffat Water Supply Corporation.

Basis of Accounting

The accrual basis of accounting is used to maintain the books of the Corporation. Revenues are recognized as billed on a cycle basis.

Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flow, cash deposits and all liquid investments purchased with an initial maturity of three months or less, and not designated as a component of the reserve fund, are considered to be cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable is recorded at the amount the Corporation expects to collect on balances outstanding at year-end. Uncollectible amounts are periodically reviewed, based on historical performance the Corporation decides whether or not to write-off. Past due balances (over 60 days) as of September 30, 2020 and 2019 were immaterial.

Fixed Assets

Property and equipment are carried at cost. If an asset is donated, it is recorded at its fair market value at the time of donation. Depreciation on assets is computed by the straight-line method based on expected service life.

Investments

Certain marketable securities are held at fair market value. Investment income and gains and losses on the investments increase or decrease unrestricted net assets unless there is a restriction on its use.

Tax Exempt Status

The Corporation qualifies as an exempt organization under state franchise tax regulations. Exempt status has been granted by the Internal Revenue Service under IRC Section 501(c)(12). A required information return is filed annually. The federal income tax returns for the Corporation for 2019, 2018, and 2017 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they were filed.

Revenue Recognition

The Corporation adopted Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606)" as of October 1, 2019, which related to revenue recognition. In general, for revenue not associated with financial instruments, guarantees, and lease contracts, management applies the following steps when recognizing revenue from contracts with customers:

Notes to Financial Statements For the Years Ended September 30, 2020 and 2019

(I) identify the contract, (II) identify the performance obligation, (III) determine the transaction price, (IV) allocate the transaction price to the performance obligation and (V) recognize revenue when a performance obligation is satisfied.

The core guidance in ASU 2014-09 is to recognize revenue to depict the transfer of promised goods or services to members in amounts that reflect the consideration to which the Corporation expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. The amount to which the Corporation expects to be entitled is calculated as the transaction price and recorded as revenue in exchange for providing goods or services.

The Corporation's contracts with customers are short-term in nature, typically due within one year or less or cancellable by us or our customer upon a short notice period. Performance obligations for customer contracts are satisfied at a single point, typically, when the transaction is complete, or overtime. For performance obligations satisfied over time, the Corporation primarily uses the output method, directly measuring the value of products/services transferred to the customer, to determine when performance obligations have been satisfied. The Corporation typically receives payment from customers and recognizes revenue concurrent with the satisfaction of its performance obligations. In most cases, this occurs within a single financial reporting period. For payments received in advance of the satisfaction of performance obligations, revenue recognition is deferred until the performance obligations have been satisfied. In cases where the Corporation has not received payment, despite the satisfaction of its performance obligations, and accrual is made of an estimated of the amount due in the period its performance obligation has been satisfied.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2014-09, "Revenue from Contracts with Customers". We adopted the requirements of the new standard effective October 1, 2019.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 2 - MEMBERSHIP INVESTMENT

Members are required to purchase one share of stock per meter in order to use the system. The membership fee is $600 per meter. The stock is non-refundable; however, it is transferable.
